

CITIES AND TOWNS OF IOWA

Table listing cities and towns in Iowa, organized by county. Columns include County, City/Town, and Population (1940 and 1950).

A-5. Ocheyedan Mound. An Indian mound which is the highest point in Iowa, has an altitude of 1,670 feet and rises 170 feet above the surrounding countryside.

D-18. Little Brown Church. Built in 1862. In recent years, hundreds of marriages are annually solemnized in this peaceful spot northeast of Nashua.

C-20. Little Cathedral. Seating capacity eight persons. Recently constructed by Johann Gaertner, a soldier under Napoleon, in gratitude for his survival of the disastrous retreat of the French Army from Moscow.

G-25. New Mellera Abbey. Founded in 1849, this Trappist Monastery is the home of a group of monks living apart from the outside world. Large-scale farming is carried on during the hours not devoted to religious service.

I-23. Stone City. Locals of a number of Grant War paintings. The Iowa Art Colony during the summers of 1932 and 1933 worked here under the supervision of J. M. W. McKim.
